

Joshua Murphy – Appalachian State University, 2019

Joshua is completing his senior year at Appalachian State University majoring in Parks and Recreation Management.

Favorite Sports Memory: “Winning the 4x100 Relay at regional championships my senior year of high school. This moment in my life meant so much to me because it taught me the meaning of hard work: I had fallen short the previous three years but I stayed positive and remained patient.”

Favorite Core Value: “Perseverance is my favorite of The First Tee Nine Core Values. I believe that if one truly perseveres through life with positivity they will find true happiness and be prepared to deal with any negativity that may approach them.”
